Alfred Davis Lott Credentialed

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Alfred Davis Lott, City Manager of Albany, Georgia, recently received the Credentialed Manager designation from ICMA, the premier local government leadership and management organization. Mr. Lott is one of 989 local government management professionals, nationwide currently credentialed through the ICMA Voluntary Credentialing Program.

To receive the prestigious ICMA credential, a member must have significant experience as a senior management executive in local government, have earned a degree, preferably in public administration or a related field, and demonstrated a commitment to high standards of integrity and to lifelong learning and professional development.

“We are very proud to have a certified professional like Alfred Lott managing the affairs of the Good Life City,” said Mayor Willie Adams. “His professionalism and dedication to local government should be emulated by his peers,” said Adams.

Alfred Lott is qualified by 9 years of professional local government executive experience and 22 years of command and staff experience in the United States Army. Prior to his appointment in September of 2005 as City Manager of [Albany, Georgia, he served as the Public Works Director of the City of Takoma Park, MD and Assistant City Manager of the City of College Park, MD.

Alfred Lott has also made significant contributions to a number of other organizations, including: the Albany, GA Chapter of the United Way, the Albany-Dougherty Economic Development Commission, Chehaw Park Authority and Communities in Schools Board of Director’s and Advisory Board.
