

HVAC FEE SCHEDULE
EFFECTIVE APRIL JULY 1, 1999
(REVISED APRIL 15, 2003)

1. Fees for Central Heating: Minimum permit shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) for any central heating system to and including 100,000 BTU input or fraction thereof above 100,000 BTU.
2. Central Air Conditioning: Minimum permit fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) plus three dollars ($3) per ton of air conditioning, and one dollar ($1) per kilowatt.
3. Combination Central Air Conditioning (cooling and heating): Minimum permit fee twenty-five dollars ($25) plus three dollars ($3) per ton of cooling, and three dollars ($3) per 100,000 BTU or fraction thereof over 100,000 BTU.
4. Ventilating Systems (other than heating and air conditioning systems): Minimum permit fee shall be twenty-five dollars ($25) for installation of ducted blower or twenty-five dollars ($25) for fan system totaling 5 H.P. plus five dollars ($5) for each additional above 5 H. P.
5. Range Hoods: For installation of each range hood, a minimum permit fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) up to ten (10) square feet face of hood plus five dollars ($5) per ten (10) square feet of additional face area.
 - B. Repairs to central air conditioning and heating requiring permit
 1. Compressor replacement shall be fifteen dollars ($15)
 2. Heat exchanger replacement shall be fifteen dollars ($15)
 3. Any alteration of duct system shall be fifteen dollars ($15)
 4. Replacement of air conditioning and/or heating units shall be twenty-five dollars ($25)

HVAC FEE SCHEDULE
PLANNING & DEVELOPMENT SERVICES
EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999
PAGE 2

7.3 ADDITIONAL INSPECTION FEE

Said inspection fee shall include a second inspection where defects or violations are noted in the first inspection. If additional inspections are required by reason of defects or violations, or state of unreadiness, there shall be a charge of twenty-five dollars ($25) per trip, to the inspection fees herein provided.

7.4 PERMIT FEES

Permit fees shall be on a cash basis.